The Alliance Municipal Building and the Freedom Center will also be hosting an open house on this date, so those facilities can be toured as well.

Free Access to Labor and Employment Cases from Your Office

The library now offers passwords that can be "checked out" to allow use of the CCH Total Connect online service anytime, anywhere. You can call (330-451-7380) or stop by the library to request a password for Total Connect. The password can be used from any computer, but will expire at the end of two weeks. The service offers access to cases and regulations as well as a variety of manuals related to health, employment and labor law. A complete list of resources is available upon request .

New Edition of Anderson's Ohio Family Law

The library has just received the revised paperback edition of Anderson's Ohio Family Law. Volume one includes an overview of family law with sample forms in the book and on cd-rom. Volume two reviews and discusses Ohio's statutory and case law related to juvenile court practice and procedure. The set is shelved at KFO94 .A25 2003.

Toastmasters

Looking for a way to polish your speaking skills? Member Kenyon Love saw a recent newsletter article about this topic, and suggests the Toastmasters club as a venue for improving your communication skills. The Towne Club meets the 2nd and 4th Thursdays at Papa Bear's Belden Village with dinner from 6:00-7:00 p.m. and the meeting from 7:00-8:30 p.m. Club members give 1-2 minute impromptu speeches and some members give 5-10 minute presentations on predetermined subjects. Mr. Love also points out that the meetings are a good place to learn parliamentary procedure. Further information is available on the international club website at: <<http://www.toastmasters.org>> or Mr. Love can be contacted at (330) 456-4308.

Mandatory Electronic Filing for the ND Bankruptcy Court

Beginning in January 2004 all pleadings and other documents must be filed electronically with the Northern District of Ohio Bankruptcy Court. The court will make one public terminal and a desktop scanner available at each of its divisional offices so that attorneys will have ready access to the necessary equipment in order to file documents electronically.

Additional information is available on the court's web site at: <<http://www.ohnb.uscourts.gov/>>. Attorneys are welcome to file electronically from the law library if their documents are on disk, but the library does not have a scanner available to convert text documents to electronic documents.

Collection Cancellations

The law library is experiencing a significant decrease in revenue, and the library's board has approved the cancellation of the following print titles because of budgetary concerns. If you have any concerns about the cancellation of any of the titles below, please contact Kendel Croston at (330) 451-7380.
